

USING MOBILE DEVICES TO TEACH ENGLISH

ABOUT THE PROJECT

This project focuses on various strategies which imply using E-learning in education. Teachers will improve their theoretical knowledge and expertise in the area of digital classroom. They will also have a chance to see and try many different activities using ICT. Participants will practice how to use different tools available online - Kahoot, Socrative, Prezi, Khan Academy, etc. They will learn how to use mobile applications in teaching English.

AIMS

- To practice a foreign language in a real context
- To discover mobile applications used in language classes
- To find out digital tools to learn a foreign language
- To be able to use digital technology properly.

WORK PROCESS

December 2018:

Sharing general information about Mobile Assisted Language Learning. Sharing documents about the methodology of MALL as an approach.

JANUARY 2019:

Applying a pre-test questionnaire to each partner school and evaluating the results.

FEBRUARY 2019:

Searching for the good practices in Mobile Assisted Language Learning implications.

MARCH 2019:

Introducing a pre-determined mobile learning application to the partners in a live event.

APRIL 2019:

Dissemination activities.

EXPECTED RESULTS

At the end of this project, the teachers of foreign language in Eskişehir, are expected to have a high level of awareness to mobile assisted language learning will share their experiences in various platforms. They are expected to practice discover mobile applications used in language classes and develop a deep insight to the implications.